Drop-off Buffet Packages & the Coyote Halloween party

Now that racing season has slowed, Jeff has had more time to spend in the restaurant (Alex, I'll take Mixed Blessings for $1,000, please.)

He's also managed to tear himself away from the weight bench and stop kissing his new biceps long enough to add to Coyote's drop-off catering menu. He isn't racing around the track, which means he can get his need for speed dropping off your catering order.

Our Buffet Packages feed as few as 10 people or as many as 50. They include, chips, salsa, chile con queso, an appetizer, two sides and your choice of entrée, whether burritos or fajitas.

Burrito Buffet Packages are $7.79 a person. Order chorizo, chicken, seafood, bean, carnita, chicken espiñacas or matchaka.

Fajita Buffet Packages are $8.29 to $8.99 a head and are available in chicken, chorizo, or a combination of the two, or steak (beef tenderloin) or a chicken-and-steak combo.
